

In-Person Tuition Free Courses Cold Case Foundation and Bureau of Indian Affairs

Course Name:

Predator/Victimology

Training Course Description:

Explore the deviant minds of convicted serial lust killers and other violent sex offenders. Specifically, the psychology behind the crime is discussed while analyzing and interpreting true accounts of some of the most notorious serial lust murders. An Investigative Perspective: Victimology is the first of the “Ten Filters of Profiling” © and the key to crime analysis, or the study of the victim. By examining who the victim is, we begin to unravel and eliminate an often perplexing web of misguided leads.
