INSTRUCTOR

Detective B. Smith has been in Law Enforcement since the day he was born due to both of his parents working for the Killeen Police Department for 35+ years before retirement in 2015. Detective B. Smith has been with the City of Killeen since June 2007 after attending Stephen F. Austin State University where he played football and baseball. Detective B. Smith started his law enforcement career in patrol until he was able to transfer to the Organized Crime Unit in February of 2014. During Detective B. Smith's career, he has served on SWAT and the FBI- Central Texas Violent Crimes Task Force while excelling at all positions he has held and been assigned to. Detective B. Smith devotes himself to taking criminals off the streets and "running up the ladder" when it comes to narcotic investigations. Detective B. Smith has been described as one who never sleeps, takes pride in everything he does with his career and is always willing to be there to assist in any way possible.

Detective B. Smith has conducted investigations with seizures resulting in kilograms of cocaine/methamphetamine, hundreds of pounds of marijuana, multiple pounds of THC/Extracts, significant amounts of firearms and large quantities of US Currency.

Detective B. Smith holds a Master Peace Officers License in the State of Texas with multiple certifications/qualifications to include Advanced SWAT Operator/Sniper, Firearms Instructor, Field Training Officer, Mechanical/Ballistic Breaching Instructor, Glock MOS Instructor, Glock Armorer, TCOLE Instructor, High Level A Clandestine Laboratory, Court Certified Expert in Narcotics and many more involving narcotics, prostitution, gangs and gambling.

Detective B. Smith has earned several awards throughout his career to include Uniformed Officer of the Year, Detective of the Year, FBI Certificate of Appreciation, Plain Clothes Detectives of the Year, Instructor of the Year and many others.

Detective B. Smith started his own narcotic training business in an attempt to give other Detectives the knowledge, training and experience that he was not afforded during his earlier years with the Organized Crime Unit.
